First Premium Grand and Square Pianos.

First Premium Grand and Square Pianos.

KNABE & G.EHLE, Manufacturers, Nos. 4, 6, 8, 9, and 11 Eutaw street, Baltimore. New tributes to the excellence of Baltimore made Piano Fortes. The Maryland Institute, at their last exhibition, awarded to us the First Premium for the best Square Piano exhibited. It will be recollected that in 1848, our Piano also received the First Premium by the same Institute.

Such testimonials are not easily earned, and are not to be lightly regarded. We may therefore say that having taken the First Premium, wherever our Instruments met with competition, we offer them to the public with a confidence we might not otherwise avow, guaranteeing all Instruments made by us to give satisfaction, or they may be exchanged within six months from day of sale. The durability of our workmanship we further guarantee for five years.

be exchanged within a constraint of the property of the years.

Having just completed large additions to our Manufactory, we hope now to supply all who may honor us with their patronage; and we invite all who desire a superior Instrument, carefully adapted to the climate—a very important matter, and which we have made our careful study—to call and examine our various styles, which we are constantly finishing, and which will be sold at the lowest market price for cash or approved paper.

In addition to the above public testimonials, our Pianos are recommended in terms of the highest praise by the following eminent artists, whose certificates can be seen at our Warercoms: Charles Bochsa, the great composer and musical director to Mad. A. Bishop; Mr. Gec. Knoop: Miss Adele and Charles Hohnstock, and other distinguished performers. To the many accomplished Professors and Amateurs, by whom our Pianos are constantly used, whilst making our thankful acknowledgments to them, we refer for further testimonials.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

WING to the laterovolutions and counterrevolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such q dek succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the tending periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspaperr, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

BLACKWOOD'S EDYBUIGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical: "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great eccleristical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

or both, as neretoure issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

For any one of the four Reviews, $3 00 per annum. For any two, do
For any three, do
For all four of the Reviews, For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 00 For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9 00 For Blackwood and four Reviews, 10 00 Payments to be made in all cases in advance.

ENLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Luc words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and iming these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund.
